

UNCG

Authors' Spotlight on Inclusive Excellence

UNCG Authors' Spotlight on Inclusive Excellence, is a noontime program hosted by UNCG's Black Faculty and Staff Association and Human Resources. In these informal and interactive sessions, UNCG authors discuss and present themes from a recent book they have written with a focus on topics related to Inclusive Excellence. Light refreshments are served.

Wednesday, September 24th

Dr. Andrea G. Hunter,

Associate Professor, Human Development
& Family Studies

“Valleys of Ivory: Poems of William Myles Evans”

Wednesday, October 22nd

Dr. Steve Kroll-Smith,

Professor of Sociology

“The Earth Dragon and “Miss Katrina” - Urban Disasters and the Recovery of Inequality

Tuesday, November 18th

Dr. William D. Hart,

Professor and Department Head
Religion, Ethics and Politics

“Afro-Eccentricity: Religion, Identity and Politics”

All sessions take place from 12pm - 1:30pm in the Faculty Center.