

Black Faculty & Staff Association

MEETING DATES

FALL 2014

WEDNESDAYS

12-1:30

FACULTY CENTER

September 17 - “General Discussion about World Affairs”

With the elections coming up, healthcare issues, our black boys and men being killed by policemen, the increase in poverty and joblessness, and domestic violence are topics to be discussed at this meeting.

October 15 - Dr. Kim Sexton-Lewter

Kim Sexton-Lewter, Assistant Director of Wellness Center, completed her Ph.D. at neighboring North Carolina Agricultural & State University. On Thursday, June 12th Dr. Kim Sexton-Lewter successfully defended her dissertation, "Understanding How White Allies in the Struggle Against Racism Unveil and Deconstruct Whiteness," in the Leadership Studies Department, at NCA&T's School of Education. Dr. Sexton-Lewter conducted a phenomenological study of the lived experiences of White anti-racism activists in the Piedmont region. Dr. Sexton-Lewter completed this while serving as a wife, mother, and active community member.

November 12 - Joint Meeting with Alianza

ALIANZA

UNCG Latino Association

ALIANZA is an association of UNCG faculty and staff that is dedicated to deepening the connections among Latino and Latino-interested individuals across UNCG's campus. ALIANZA is at the core of the UNCG Latino Initiative (LI), a grassroots collaboration to build a strategic framework to promote Latino student access, retention, and graduation and to energize Latino-focused scholarship. LI is grounded in UNCG's commitment to serve the local community, and LI stakeholders diligently partner to contribute to UNCG's overall diversity and inclusive excellence.

December 10 - Pot Luck